THINK ACT!

Read What Your Neighbors Think of Britannica.

The set of Britannica ordered from you has been received and unpacked, and upon examination I find that the work exceeds my expectations in paper, print and binding. It is the great Edinburgh, page for page, which I have always desired, but could not purchase before on account of the price, $15 in cloth.

JOHN W. WAGNER,

Principal No. 10 School.

Judge H. M. Edwards says:

I have compared the volume of your reprint of the Britannica with the volume of the original edition in my possession, and I find it to be the same, besides having the American additions. It is a complete library in itself.

This is the age of books. Learning is so broad and books are so numerous that it is impossible for any one to procure separate volumes upon all the subjects which at present engage human thought. To place of this, a good Encyclopedia is an attempt to abridge, or epitomize, and classify all knowledge to bring it within the limit of our comprehension. After a somewhat careful study of three or four of the principal Encyclopedias I affirm without hesitation that the Britannica has no superior. Readers of all classes should possess it.

W. G. WATKINS,

Pastor Providence Baptist church.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 7, 1893.

About one year ago I purchased from Charles Scribner's Sons the sixth edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica, leather binding, 66 per volume.

HOWARD M. STREETER,

Attorney and Counselor.

The public should appreciate and take advantage of THE TRIBUNE'S offer of a copy of the great Edinburgh edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica with supplimental matter added to each volume and the latest maps, at $1.03 per volume, and on easy payments it is a rare opportunity.

It is a complete library and should be in the home of every school boy and girl.

One who has never used an Encyclopedia cannot appreciate its value. Let the boys and girls learn its use when young, and so lay the foundation. They are not using such aids half enough.

W. R. GRAVES,

Principal No. 35.

From the scores of such expressions commendatory of this great work it seems that enough had been said to establish confidence. Only nine days remain in which to secure it. Office at 437 Spruce street; open evenings. On receipt of $4.50 by mail the twenty-five volumes will be forwarded, express prepaid.

Music Boxes Exclusively.

Best made. Play any desired number of tunes. Gausch & Sons, manufacturers, 1000 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. Wonderful orchestral organs, only $25 and $50.

Specialty: Old music boxes carefully repaired and improved with new tunes. **

FUNERAL OF MRS. EVA RINKER

Services Conducted at the House by Rev. Dr. Floyd—Frederick C.

Whitburn Interred—Exercises of Welsh Congregational Sunday School—Coming Changes of Business Houses—Debate for the Browning Cup.

[The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 125 South Main ave- nue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.]

The funeral of Mrs. Eva Rinker, who died on Sunday at noon, was held yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from the family home on South Bromley avenue. Impressive services were held at the home by Rev. L. C. Floyd, D. D., pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church. The remains were viewed by her numerous friends as they lay in the handsome black casket at the residence. The floral tributes were numerous and of neat design, among them being a pillow inscribed "Mamma," presented by her two daughters, a bouquet of Easter lilies and a handsome basket of flowers.

During the services a quartet consisting of Miss Nichols, Miss Cora Storms, Tallie Morgan and Hector James, rendered several appropriate selections. After the service the funeral cortege moved to the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad depot and the remains were taken on the 9:50 train to Stroudsburg, where interment was made. The pall bearers were: S. M. Foster, Charles Bush, George Reese and S. M. Reese. A large number accompanied the remains to Stroudsburg.

A Complicated Charge.

Miss Annie Van Schover, a resident of Eyre street, was taken to the county jail on Tuesday evening in default of bond on a charge of assault and battery, preferred by Titus Evans. The case was heard in the court of Alderman T.

T. Morgan. Miss Van Schover brought a cross suit against Evans and one against Constable Henry Bursenal for arresting her in her home. Constable Bursenal went to the woman's house for the purpose of laying on her goods and finding the door open he entered.

As Miss Van Schover was committed to jail in default of bond on the first charge, the cross cases have been postponed.

Changes in April.

The Globe shoe store of Elias E.

Evans, on South Main avenue will be removed on April 1 to 227 Lackawanna avenue, where it will be opened under the name of Evans and Powell. The second partner, Samuel Powell, of Jackson street, S. J. Reese, the hardware merchant, will occupy the store to be vacated by Mr. Evans. John Reese on North Main avenue, will move into the Bruner block formerly occupied by the Boston shoe company on South Main avenue.

For the Browning Cup

The postponed meeting in debate between the Vesper society of the Penn Avenue Baptist church and the Young People's Literary and Debating society of the First Welsh Baptist church will be held tomorrow evening at the First Welsh Baptist church. The subject will be "Resolved, That

Times Are Determined by Commercial Prosperity." The Hyde Park society will have the affirmative side of the question and will be upheld by

E. E. Robinson, John J. Davies and John

Reynolds. The debaters for the Vesper society are Professor Louis Lange,

E. A. Williams and George Fallinger.
